

Instructions

1. Cut up labels and hand out to students, or put them on their tables/chairs.
2. Designate areas with a sign:
 - a. Left of classroom = Parliament/Legislature
 - b. Back of classroom = Executive
 - c. Right of classroom = Judiciary
 - d. Front of classroom = More than one arm of government
3. Ask students to move into the area of the classroom that corresponds to their place in the separation of powers, based on their role.
4. Go through each section and check that everyone is with the right arm of government – ask students to tell everyone who they are. If incorrect, identify where they should be and reallocate.
5. Point out any fun connections – eg. Minister for Police (the big big boss! Responsible in Parliament), Police Commissioner (head of the Department), Police Officer (reports to the Police Commissioner)
